

COST OF LIVING GOES HIGHER THAN EVER; PROVEN BY FIGURES

Yearly Expenditure for Average Family $60.43 More Than in 1907.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The cost of living is higher than ever before in the United States, as far as Government statistics show, and is increasing each year. In 1914 the year's cost of filling the market basket of the average American workingman's family was $6.68 higher than it was in 1913, and $60.43 higher than it was in 1907, calculating on relative price figures announced to-day by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, as a result of its most recent investigation of retail prices.

These figures represent prices of fifteen articles aggregating approximately two-thirds of the expenditure for food by the average workingman's family. The cost of these articles in 1913 was $333.90, making the 1914 cost $340.58, while in 1907 it was $250.15.

Calculating these amounts as two-thirds of the workingman's family food expenditure, the total spent for food in these years would be: In 1913, $490.85; 1914, $510.87, and 1907, $410.20.

The Bureau's investigation covered prices in forty-four important industrial cities, representing thirty-three States.

A stein of steak that cost 91 in 1912 now costs 103.5; a round steak costing 89.2 in 1912, in 1914 cost 105.7. Other comparative prices are:

	1912	1914
Rib roast	93.6	103.1
Pork chops	91.2	104.6
Smoked bacon	90.0	101.8
Smoked ham	90.5	101.6
Lard	88.6	98.6
Eggs	92.4	102.8
Flour	105.1	103.8
Corn meal	101.7	103.2
Sugar	99.0	102.9
Creamery butter	97.6	94.4
Irish potatoes	132.0	131.0
Sugar, granulated	115.0	104.1
Fresh milk	97.4	100.5

The figures show that the Western part of the United States has not suffered as much as other parts.

RAIN STORM POSTPONES MANDALAY "BEAUTY" TRIP

But Evening World's Pretty Girls Will Ride and Dance To-Night, Sure.

Inclement weather which put in an unexpected and certainly an unwelcome appearance last night caused the postponement of the trip up the Hudson on the pleasure boat Mandalay to be given as a consolation prize to the hundreds of girls who entered their pictures in The Evening World-Universal Film Manufacturing Company Free Panama-Pacific Tour, and who had failed to win one of seven prizes.

However, the excursion will be given to-night, rain or shine, as the boat is fully protected. Arrangements as to the route, prize dancing, etc., remain the same.

Held for Attempted Suicide.

Discovered in an attempt to end his life by inhaling gas, David Haskins, fifty-four years old, was attended by a physician at his home, No. 1247 Webster Avenue, this morning. He was then arrested.

The range of style in Kayser Silk Gloves is so complete that you can select your summer gloves with as much interest as you do your winter supply. In fact, there is a Kayser Silk Glove for every warm weather need; the all-lace or the embroidered style for the diaphanous gown of midsummer; the strictly stitched and tailored glove for street suits, and the heavier silk glove for informal country wear.
